1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims recite a method for performing a mathematical function. The claimed invention comprises a plurality of steps whereby the claimed steps may be non-statutory subject matter.

However, in order for such a claimed computer-related process to be statutory, the method claims must include either a step that results: (1) in a physical transformation outside the computer, (2) in a limitation to a practical application, or (3) performed specific machine/element(s). Accordingly, claims 7-10 may be directed to a non-statutory process.

2. Applicant's arguments filed on 2-17-05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant, in his remarks, argues that: "[t]he rejection of claims 7-10 under 35 USC 101 is overcome by the amendment to claim 7".

With respect to the arguments, the examiner carefully reviews the claimed invention. The amended claim 7 adds only language "non-human". Therefore, claim 7 is not limited to tangible embodiments. In view of Applicant's disclosure, see page 9, lines 13-23, "[t]he logical operations of the various embodiments of the present invention are implemented (1) as a sequence of computer implemented acts or program modules running on a computing system and/or (2) as interconnected machine logic circuits or circuit modules within the computing system ...”, the term “non-human method” is not limited to tangible embodiments, instead being defined as including both tangible embodiments (e.g., circuit modules) and intangible embodiments (e.g., program modules). As such, the claim is not limited to statutory subject matter and is therefore non-statutory.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the recorded references do NOT teach or suggest the square root calculator / apparatus having integer portion, fraction portion and sum of the integer portion & the fraction portion features as recited in independent claims 1 and 17.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
